1	Overall, we have good rigor and process within the College Leadership relative to the maintenance of the Mission, Planning and Policies for the organization. Additionally, there is consistent focus by the Board to address issues related to these areas that require revisions and/or updates.	1/26/2015 9:06 PM
2	How does the board know if the policies are up to date? Can we obtain a list/report for this information?	1/23/2015 9:27 PM

1	There is a consistent, wide-open conduit and flow of information between the Chancellor and the Board. Additionally, periodic phone calls, as well as e-mail updates to Board members in between Board meetings for miscellaneous College issues helps to keep Board members current on relevant and important issues.	1/26/2015 9:06 PM

1	While I believe the Board does a fairly good job with representing citizens in the District, I believe there is an opportunity to 'up-our-game' when it comes to the level and amount of advocacy on behalf of the District to local, state, and federal governments. Attendance and participation with other statewide Community Colleges at Sacramento and other national-events could be an opportunity to enhance our performance in this area.	1/26/2015 9:06 PM
2	I believe with various data/tracking efforts, we are working very hard to better understand who our citizens in the community are. That should help us to improve the understanding of our citizens needs.	1/23/2015 9:27 PM

1	Our relationship was much closer, before the economy of 2009.	1/29/2015 7:38 AM
2	Excellent relationship. Keep questioning.	1/27/2015 5:43 PM
3	The Board has a very good relationship with the Chancellor. Both the Board and Chancellor work hard to keep communication open.	1/26/2015 9:46 PM
4	Collaborative and cooperative are 2-words that best describe the Board's relationship with the Chancellor. Board members regularly inquire into areas where further detail/explanation is needed. Furthermore, the Board takes time during scheduled meetings to provide feedback and commentary on Agenda topics and presenters. Continuation of these practices will allow for continued success going forward into 2015 and beyond.	1/26/2015 9:06 PM
5	Good relationship with the Chancellor. Respect, honesty and support. More dialogue between meetings.	1/26/2015 9:43 AM
6	Communication is the key. The Chancellor is accessible, many of us board members are not sp much. I thought the Chancellor was supposed to give us a mid-month phone call or email update. If I'm wrong, maybe we could implement that.	1/23/2015 9:27 PM
7	I hope the Chancellor has no complaints. We support him publicly and do what he asks almost always. We respect his judgement. I don't think he is looking for any changes. If he wants change he will have to ask!	1/23/2015 4:02 PM

Q20 Describe a typical Board meeting. Do the agendas and conduct of the meeting effectively meet the purpose of Board meetings? Why or why not?

1	Yes except now and then some items lack all the info needed,could be an ink shortage.	1/29/2015 7:38 AM
2	Who thought up this question? I'm comfortable with the meetings.	1/27/2015 5:43 PM
3	Yes, we do very good at sticking to the issues. If we have the questions answered we come to a conclusion and answer the questions.	1/26/2015 9:46 PM
4	Agendas are timely, meetings consistently start on time, adequate time is provided to fully explore and understand each Agenda topic, and the execution and arrangement of the topics supports the efficient flow of the meetings overall. This allows the Board to focus on the topics of the Agenda versus the process for the Board's meeting.	1/26/2015 9:06 PM
5	Very eventful, good reports, dialogue,educational and respectful. Yes the agenda is to the point and serves the business of the college.	1/26/2015 9:43 AM
6	I believe the board meetings run pretty well. We start on time, follow the agenda, try very hard not to waste time, yet set aside time for faculty and department presentations and reports. We provide a comfortable setting. We provide a pleasant experience for everyone. The agenda has appropriate timely topics. Occassionally there is not enough time allowed for a good discussion without causing time constraints to others.	1/23/2015 9:27 PM
7	The president keeps the meetings on schedule and gives each member an opportunity for input. Yes, the do serve the purpose. We get the job done without being disagreeable with one another.	1/23/2015 4:02 PM
